

Debora Brambilla

Lawyer of Counsel

Qualification

Ph.D. in Business Law: intellectual property and competition
(University of Parma – Italy)
J.D.
(University of Parma – Italy)

Contributor to Italian IP law reviews and author of publications in the IP field.
Co-Author of the Italian Commentary on IP Code and Copyright Law, published by UTET–Wolters Kluwer, Turin, 2011

Speaker at various conferences on the protection of IP rights.

Litigation (trademarks, patents, design and trade secrets)

Focus On

Legal Assistance

Headquarters

Milan

Foreign Languages

Italian
English

2005 – 2017

She worked for a prestigious Italian IP Law firm

2018

She started as of counsel at Dragotti & Associati

Expertise

She has successfully handled a number of cases concerning the protection of worldwide trademarks, patents and design and against unfair competition from parasitic exploitation and lookalikes. She assists Italian and multinational companies in the luxury, fashion, design, food, mechanical, chemical and pharmaceutical field.

Judicial and extrajudicial expertise on:

- Trademarks and domain names
- PDO (Protected Designation of Origin) and PGI (Protected Geographical Indication)
- Unfair competition and advertising
- Know-how and industrial trade secrets
- Patents and design
- Copyright

Associations

- Italian Bar Association
- AIPPI (International Association for the Protection of Intellectual Property)
- LES (Licensing Executives Society)

Contacts

brambilla@legal.dragotti.com

+ 39 02 29014418